

DROUGHT HAS DONE DAMAGE
OVER COUNTY

POSSIBLE MILK SHORTAGE IS MOST SERIOUS THREAT
AT PRESENT

CROP CONDITION ONLY "FAIR"

County Agent In Summary Of Conditions Over County Says Corn Can Be Saved By Rain

County Agent Guy T. Harris Thursday summarized the drought damage in Putnam county as "general" but stated that Putnam county crops were in fair condition when compared to the status of crops in neighboring counties.

One of the more serious threats at the present time, the county agent said, was the possibility of a milk shortage due to the lack of pasture land for cows. Grass is burned up and many farmers in the county are feeding their cattle winter forage.

Farmers are confronted with the method of handling their cut of hay.
Alfalfa is short and much of it is further damaged by the fact that the lower parts of the stem are dry.
When it is cut there will be a high stubble, discouraging further growth, the agent said.

Corn can yet be revived by a good rain. The crop is now at the stage, when in normal years, it would be tasseling and pollinating. Even if sufficient rainfall should come it is evident that corn will be short. Many farmers may be forced to resort to the same practice used after the drought of 1934—cutting their corn and using it for silage and winter feed. Mr. Harris said that corn in bottom land was generally in better condition than that on higher ground.

The prospect of a quantity of fresh vegetables has faded. Gardeners without sprinkling facilities will be unable to save their gardens.

Due to the fact that soy beans cover the ground closely the moisture has been held better and this crop is in fair condition. It also is short, he affirmed.

Northern parts of the county have been benefitted by thundershowers but the greater part of the central and southern portions are very dry.

Harris said that the whole situation is at a crucial stage. A general rain would probably insure a fair yield but much more blistering sun will spell doom.

Deaths Mounting
From Heat Wave

NATION'S DEAD AS RESULT OF DROUGHT IS SET
AT 3,500

CHICAGO, July 16, (UP)—The burning prairies of the Dakotas generated new blasts of heat today that threatened to increase the death toll to upwards of 4,000 and spread new destruction over America's drought basin.

"It's actually a regeneration of heat over the Dakotas that is continuing the drought," Forecaster J.
R. Lloyd reported.

"As the hot air moves east the west portion of the Dakotas will be cooler tonight and the Dakotas northwestern Minnesota, and Nebraska will enjoy cooler weather tomorrow.

"We can't predict now whether this new mass of cool air will reach other sections of the middlewest."

CHICAGO, July 16 (UP)—Killing heat persisting in scattered sections of the three great valleys of the Middle West added hourly today to its already tremendous death and property toll.

Deaths from the heat which spread across the nation 12 days ago edged past 3,500. Damage to crops mounted to $500,000,000 with no signs of stopping there.

Black clouds poured draughts of cooling air across 14 drought-ridden prairie states but left a dozen or more untouched and suffering from 100-degree temperatures and continued lack of rain.

The heat area today covered the lower Mississippi, middle Mississippi, and lower Ohio valleys. It encompassed Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kansas, Missouri, southwestern Wisconsin, south and central Illinois, and southern Minnesota.

Weather forecasts were discouraging.
Government forecasters predicted

Nab Officer As Spy

Following close on the heels of conviction of a former west coast naval man for espionage, John S. Farnsworth, Ohioan, once a lieutenant commander in the United States navy, was arrested in Washington D. C., and pleaded not guilty to charges of selling his government's naval secrets to Japan.

"Slightly cooler" weather today for Ohio and Kentucky. Showers to be followed by cooler weather were predicted for the extreme eastern edge of Iowa, central Indiana, central Illinois, and possibly southern Wisconsin.

ZEIS, BISHOP MAKE TALKS

Largest Crowd of Softball Season Sees Three-Hour Dedication Program Wednesday Evening

The largest crowd of the local softball season was on hand at Robe-Ann park Wednesday night for events of the diamond dedication program.
Contests of skill, short talks by city and school officials, and an inter-league softball game between leaders in the Federal league and the National league featured the program.

Mayor Charles F. Zeis spoke in behalf of the city, stating that Greencastle is proud to have developed a recreational plant of the size of Robe-Ann park in such a short period of time. William Bishop, high school principal, speaking for the schools, lauded John W. Robe for his interest in recreational activities which resulted in his turning over the property on which the park now stands to the city.

In the featured inter-league softball contest the Greencastle Merchants, tied for the lead in the National league, defeated Lone Star, Federal League leaders, 9-7 in one of the closest contests played on the softball diamond here this year.

Behind seven hit pitching of Messersmith and Stites the Merchants won by scoring two runs in the sixth inning to break a 7-7 tie. The Merchants hit twelve safeties off Hill,

CHICAGO WOMAN ON STAND ADMITS KILLING HUSBAND

CHICAGO, July 16, (UP)—Eleven sober-faced married men and a widow listened again today to the marital woes which beset Mrs. Mildred Mary Bolton before she killed her insurance-broker husband with the bullets she intended for herself.

The swarthy widow lacked the calm that earned her the nickname "Marble Mildred" when she glanced up from her husband's body and opined that "They don't convict women who kill their husbands in Cook county."

She wept freely as she told of her troubles and startled spectators by admitting she killed her husband.
Previously, she had denied it.

The state completed its case, presented the gun which Mrs. Bolton purchased and later used in the shooting.

"I intended to kill myself at my husband's office to embarrass him," she testified.

car for ninety days. They pleaded

Attempt Made To Kill King Edward

MIDDLE-AGED ECCENTRIC HELD
AFTER ATTACK ON BRIT-ISH RULER

LONDON, July 16, (UP)—A middle-aged eccentric sprang at King Edward VII during a royal procession near Buckingham Palace today, flourishing a revolver and apparently making an attempt to assassinate the king.

Bystanders and police pounced on the man and overpowered him.

At Scotland Yard, the assailant gave his name as George Andrew Mahon of London, and described himself as a "journalist." He is partially crippled, middle-aged and slightly bald.

The evidence presented at a hearing in Bow Street police court seemed to tend toward indicating he is harmless. Mahon was rather incoherent and denied any intention or desire to hurt the king. He said he merely wanted to "protest" but did not say what he desired to protest.

The assailant did not succeed in firing a shot. The king's horse, eye witnesses said, was struck either by the flying revolver or some other missile and pranced slightly, but the king quickly controlled his charger and resumed the procession.

Accounts of the incident differed.
Some witnesses said the horse was hit by a package shaped like a brick.
Others believed the revolver, knocked from the assailant's hand by bystanders, flew against the horse's flank.

The man was overpowered and taken to Hyde Park police station and later to Scotland Yard.

The procession had passed from the park down Constitution Hill toward the palace and had just reached the Wellington archway when the incident happened.

The street was lined with closely massed people. The king was riding his brown charger, Cobham, at the head of 6,000 guardsmen. His Majesty wore a grenadier guard's uniform, with red tunic and black tight-fitting breeches with a broad red stripe. A black mourning band was on his arm. He had on the black bushy of the grenadiers, with a little red tuft on it. He wore a sword.

The horse, which is notable for its sedateness and is always used by the king for trooping ceremonies, was in full caparison, with a saddle cloth bearing the royal arms.

Witnesses saw the man, whom they described as short, thick-set and clean shaven, wearing a brown suit, step into the roadway, brandishing the revolver. Bystanders pounced on him. Police quickly joined in and he was overpowered.

The king halted only a moment and appeared quite calm and undisturbed. The procession then resumed its way to the palace. Later the king went to York house, cheered by crowds enroute.

Scotland Yard did not immediately divulge the name of the arrested man but decided to arraign him in Dow street police court under the firearms act.

More Relief Is Promised State

ADDITIONAL SHOWERS AND COOLER TEMPERATURE IS INDIANA FORECAST

INDIANAPOLIS, July 16 (UP)— Additional relief from one of the state's most severe droughts was promised today with the forecast of scattered thundershowers and cooler temperature in the central portion.

Rain fell in various sections of the state yesterday to break the two-week hold of the heat wave. Heavy wind and hail accompanied the rain in some sections.

The state counted a death toll of 243 today, after nine consecutive days of 100-degree temperature.

Forty-seven additional deaths were reported throughout the state yesterday and 10 persons were victims of the heat in Indianapolis.

An hour-long rain soaked the fields of Bartholomew county, with slight wind damage attending the storm. Brookston, Tippecanoe county also reported heavy rain.

St. Joseph, Allen, Jay, Madison, Monroe, Clark, and Delaware counties were relieved with showers.

Temperatures fell sharply with rain but the mercury began to rise again later.

A windstorm, accompanied by rain and hail, struck Dearborn county, causing considerable damage in several sections of the county. No one was reported injured, however.

Parts of Aurora were without electricity for five hours when wind blew down utility poles. Damaged transformers near Manchester put Lawrenceburg in darkness for thirty minutes.

Numerous barns and silos were felled.

U. S. SENATOR KILLED

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., July 16 (UP)—Louis Murphy, junior United States senator from Iowa, was killed, his wife and two other companions injured today when his automobile plunged over an embankment near here.

Murphy died enroute to St. Joseph's hospital. He had been pinned under the machine.

Mrs. Murphy was being treated for chest injuries by Dr. J. A. Kelly at the hospital.

New Deal AAA administrator.

Muncie Prepares
For Convention

STATE LEGION CONVENTION TO BE HELD AUGUST
22 TO 25

MUNCIE, July 16.—This city of 50,000 persons eagerly awaits the opening of the annual convention of the Indiana Department of the American Legion and its auxiliary organizations.

For Muncie is determined to show the world war veterans of Indiana the best time of their lives, when they gather here on Saturday, Aug.
22 to remain until Tuesday, Aug. 25.

It is not alone Delaware Post, No.
19, and the American Legion convention. Behind these groups stand the citizenry of Muncie, anxious to entertain the 15,000 to 20,000 persons who will be here during the four days.

The convention program follows the wishes of the national department. The convention and the parade will be kept free of any objectionable features. It will be a patriotic pageant in itself and behind it all will be a social program that assures the legionnaires plenty of good, clean fun.

It will be a convention replete with features, starting with the 40 and 8 parade and wreck on Saturday evening and ending with the final business sessions Tuesday. The parade, which should be the greatest patriotic event in Muncie since the World war days, will be held Monday afternoon.

Sunday will be given over to special church services, band contests, rifle and pistol matches, golf and swimming. The marksmanship contests will start Sunday morning. In the afternoon, the preliminary drum corps and band competition will take place on the Central high school athletic field with the finals at the same field, under lights, at night.
Seats for for 6,000 persons will be available. Prizes, totaling $1,300 and trophies will be awarded the winning organizations.

Advance registrations are pouring in. Kenneth Foster, head of the registration committee, reports. More than 500 registrations from outside the city already have been received.
The same report comes from Paul Norris, head of the housing committee, which is providing accommodations for the thousands of convention visitors.

Joseph D. O'Neill, president of the convention corporation has 39 committees actively at work on the many phases of the convention. These committees are submitting weekly reports and department officers have announced that Muncie's plans at this stage are farther advanced than in any city where conventions have been held in the past.

One of the highlights of the convention will be the attendance of Mrs. Melville Muckelstone, national auxiliary president. Mrs. Muckel-stone, a former resident of Blackford county, Indiana, several weeks ago accepted the invitation to attend her home state convention. She will address a joint session of the Legion and Auxiliary on Sunday morning.

Muncie will offer commodious buildings for the convention activities, all are located near the downtown.

13TH DAY FOR 100° WEATHER
IN THIS CITY

ATMOSPHERE COOLED SOME-WHAT DURING NIGHT MAK-ING SLEEP POSSIBLE

STORM IN NORTH PUTNAM

Roachdale Had Rain, Barn On Vane
Farm East Of Roachdale, Struck By Lightning.

The mercury soared to 100 degrees at 1 o'clock this afternoon, marking the 13th consecutive day that Greencastle and Putnam county residents have sweated in maximum temperatures ranging from 100 to 111 degrees.

The relief promised yesterday from the two weeks of more than 100 degree temperatures which has prevailed here, was not as great as hoped for, but the cooling breeze which came up during the late afternoon and held to some extent during the night, cooled the atmosphere a little.

In the north part of the county, a storm broke during the middle of the afternoon. It was accompanied by a display of lightning that struck at least one barn, destroying it. The building was on the Vance farm east of Roachdale.

The high temperature here for Wednesday was 109 degrees and the mercury dropped only 30 degrees for a minimum during the night. At half past nine o'clock this morning it had risen to 90 degrees and seemed headed for another mark of 100 or more.

There was a good breeze today that aided in keeping people cooler than they had been for the past two weeks, but everyone is hoping for more relief than this far has been received.

C. G. Buis, who lives on state road 36, between Groveland and New Winchester, was here Thursday morning and reported a terrific wind storm as well as a heavy rain in his neighborhood. Wind unroofed some buildings, blew down trees and damaged others.

Following the wind, heavy hail fell and then the rain storm broke.
Water was still running in the branches, several feet deep, Thursday morning, and the whole community was flooded for a short time during the afternoon. Water was still standing in the corn fields 24 hours after the rain. It was the heaviest rain any section of Putnam county has had in more than a month.

CRITICALLY ILL

Leonard Young, age 20 years, who was badly burned July 7th when he came in contact with a live electric wire carrying 2300 volts, while wrecking on the old gas plant just south of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks on State road 43, is reported in a very critical condition at the Putnam county hospital.

LABOR PEACE SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, July 16, (UP)— Organized labor drew back today from the greatest split in history of the American Federation of Labor and opened new peace negotiations designed to avoid a scheduled trial Aug. 3 of insurgent unions led by John L. Lewis.

Hope of labor leaders that a united front might yet be presented in the widening campaign initiated by Lewis for unionization of the $5,000-000,000 steel industry was spurred by failure of the federation executive council to suspend the rebel unions which joined the committee for industrial organization.

The most significant decision of the council was approval of reneged negotiations with Lewis—in which

To Build More Flashing Signals

GREATER PROTECTION FOR AUTOISTS PLANNED AT RAIL CROSSINGS

INDIANAPOLIS, July 16—Increased protection for motorists was planned today by the State Highway commission in a program for installing flashing light signals at 161 more highway-railway intersections.

Bids on the major materials to be used in assembling and installing the signals will be opened by the commission next Tuesday.

This is the second group of intersections selected by the commission in co-operation with the railroads for installation of signals.

Fifty intersections were included in the first program, now approximately 60 per cent completed.

In selecting crossings, engineers considered the volume and speed of motor vehicle traffic; the number, kind and speed of trains operated, and visibility, accidents and numerous other conditions.

In both programs a majority are intersections of state highways with railroads. A number of intersections on county roads and city streets were added.

Cost of materials is expected to exceed $210,000, or an average of $1,300 per crossing. The cost of materials and labor will be paid from federal funds allocated to Indiana.

These signals supplement the commission's grade separation program in providing greater safety. The signals will be installed where grade separations are impractical because of local conditions and comparatively light traffic.

It is estimated that the total cost of increased protection for motorists at the 161 crossings now being considered will equal that of seven grade separations.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

Dracula's daughter flames to life each night and searches for victims to appease her terrible appetite. ## FARM LOANS INCREASE LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 16.—Observing this week the 20-year anniversary of the passing of the Farm Loan Act of 1916 which marked the beginning of co-operative credit in the United States, Ernest Rice, President of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville announced that the outstanding amount of Federal land bank loans in Putnam County, Indiana, increased from $1,061,690 in May 1933, when the Farm Credit Administration was organized to $1,663,300 which was the face amount of land bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans outstanding at the beginning of 1936. The number of farmers having their mortgage loans through the land bank increased from 342 to 529.

The large advance in the amount of loans outstanding had made very little, if any, increase in the total indebtedness of Putnam County farmers, Rice said, since farmers used about 9 out of 10 dollars borrowed to pay already existing debts owed to banks, insurance companies, merchants and other concerns and individuals.

The cooperative farm loan business is handled locally by the First Putnam County National Farm Loan Association, located at Greencastle. It is one of 140 similar organizations serving farmers of this state. Lynn Brown is the Secretary-Treasurer and chief executive officer. Directors are Milton Brown, President, H. O. Bratton, vice-president, Paul D. Frederick, Ira Hutcheson, and Charles McFerran.

The experience in cooperative credit it furnished by the land banks and the farm loan associations paved the way for the organization of a cooperative short-term lending system. Putnam County farmers are served in this field by the Greencastle Production Credit Association, which has made 1,838 loans for $1,145,543 since its organization in 1934.

JOB PROBLEMS
FACE DISABLED
WAR VETERANSCONVENTION IN MILWAUKEE TO DISCUSS GREATER AID
FROM U. S.

MILWAUKEE, July 16 (UP)—Two thousand men who were wounded in the World War will assemble here July 18 at the national convention of Disabled American Veterans to prepare demands for a "fair deal" in obtaining jobs.

Marvin H. Harlan, El Paso, Tex., national commander, predicted the convention would adopt a resolution urging congress to enact legislation giving disabled veterans preference on government jobs.

"One of the greatest tasks facing us is to find employment for the partially disabled," Harlan said. "As these disabled veterans grow older their opportunity for employment lessens. Their disability prevents them from competing in the open labor market."

Vivian Croby, Cincinnati, O., national adjutant, predicted the convention would go on record opposing a general veterans pension law.

"The government should provide for its disabled war veterans first," he said.

Other resolutions the delegates will present to the convention, Croby said, would involve hospitalization, rehabilitation, employment, dependency claims, national defense and subversive activities.

The convention will hear prominent speakers discuss veterans' problems. Rep. John C. Rankin, of Mississippi, chairman of the house veterans' affairs committee, will address the convention in regard to legislation.

Among other speakers tentatively scheduled are Sen. Frederick W. Steiwer of Oregon, Republican convention keynote Gen. Frank T. Hines, head of the veterans' administration, and Arly Murphy of Iowa, national commander of the American Legion.

A huge military parade, featuring floats and smartly uniformed bands, will precede and address by Gov. Philip F. La Follette on July 22. The convention will continue through July 25.

FARM ANIMALS NOT NEEDED

DETROIT, July 16.—Henry Ford, in an interview Wednesday said that he hoped to prove within two years that all the animals on the farm "are really unnecessary."

"We can, I believe, get a more plentiful supply of food, cheaper and better," the industrialist said, "by processing the products of the soil, instead of asking cows and chickens to do it for us. In the future, farm animals of all kinds will be out. We won't need them; we will be better off without them."

Ford reiterated his oft-expressed view that the world offers more opportunity than ever for youth.

"A lot of these young fellows," he said, "have ideas in their heads for improvement of things now used and new things that will be useful. You can't stop youth."

Ford, who will observe his 73rd birthday anniversary a fortnight hence, appeared unusually well and active, despite the hot weather of the last week. He attributed his present good health to the fact he had been much out of doors recently and had been indulging in almost daily bicycle rides on his private roadway.

Drought Fails
To Cut Wheat

LAFAYETTE, July 16.—Indiana wheat production will average fifteen bushels per acre and will total 27,600,000 bushels, according to the monthly crop report issued by Purdue University and the United States Department of Agriculture today.

Although the subzero weather of last winter damaged the crop, wheat profited from a favorable Spring and was well matured before the drought. However, the oats crop was hit hard and was reported at 54 per cent normal, a drop of 19 per cent from June 1. Barley has suffered about the same.

On July 1, the condition of corn was reported as 73 per cent of normal, 4 points above last year, but 3 points below the ten-year average. Potatoes stood at 54 per cent of normal on July 1, or 27 per cent below the ten-year-average. Early potatoes were reported low in condition to a complete failure.

Alfalfa condition was reported as 74 per cent of normal against 83 a year ago, but that has declined since July 1.

The labor supply was reported at 90 per cent of normal, against 98 a year ago.

PLAN 4-H PICNIC

Members of the 4-H club junior fair board met in the office of Guy T. Harris, county agent, Wednesday evening. Thirty-seven junior leaders were present and further arrangements for the 4-H club camp at McCormick's Creek state park, August 25-29 were made.

Plans were drafted for a 4-H club picnic to be held July 23. The site chosen was Stockwells grove, located about 4 miles south of road 40 on highway 43. Harris said that the location is cool, shady, and supplied with good well water and tables.

The group will meet at noon on July 23 for a picnic lunch, which will be followed by a short program and entertainment.

The fair board also made arrangements for the management of the enterprise.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 16. — Six survey parties, equipped with portable scales to weigh trucks using Indiana highways, are collecting data for the highway survey commission.

The highway survey commission, created by the Indiana general assembly in 1935, is making an extensive study of traffic conditions in cooperation with the state highway commission and the United States bureau of public roads. Results of this and other studies now in process are to be embodied in a report to be made to the general assembly in 1937.

Determination by actual weighing on the road of loads being carried by trucks is one of the phases of the survey which will provide data of

Chapter One

"A slim blond girl in a Pennsylvania orphanage, dreaming of a life of gaiety, of movement, of romance—an Irish lad working in a London factory, dreaming of the inventions which some day he would work out—a young aristocrat in Paris dreaming of the day when he would fly a plane high above the world—here a charming woman of the world, here, there and everywhere, planning rather than dreaming of the important things she would do—"

They were miles apart in background, ambition and character as well as in space. That they would ever play a part in each others' lives, or even see each other in passing, would have seemed impossible. But fate, chance, accident—whatever it is called—has a way of bringing about the most fantastic events. It knows no laws but its own unfathomable ones.

It was Suzy Trent who had the furthest to go toward the trust the four dissimilar characters were to keep. When she was a little girl, scarcely more than a baby, she would tell herself that some day she was going to travel to far places. Where—she scarcely mastered, just so she could leave behind forever that barren, ugly orphanage. How—she didn't know yet, but some day she would find a way.

"I don't care at the start," she would say to herself fiercely, "if I have to stand behind a counter all day in a store, if I have to wash dishes in a cheap restaurant—I'm going places and see things and have things before I'm many years older."

Of course she dreamed of being an actress—what young girl doesn't? Whether she had any talent or not she did not know. But she knew she had two things which were an asset—beauty and determination. So when she left the orphanage, she went straight to New York—of course.

"So—trying to cheat a respectable woman out of her bill," Mrs. Beggs sniffed.

She had only a few dollars but she knew how to make them last a long time. For that she might have thanked the training she had had in the orphanage. She wanted luxury and she meant to have it some day but she had never known it and so she did not miss it.

From the start she was luckier than most girls who go to the city. The dollars weren't quite gone—and she had not stood behind a counter nor washed dishes in a restaurant—when she got her first job. She wasn't to be an actress, perhaps, but at least she was to be on the stage. She was to be in the chorus of a third rate touring company booked solid for a season.

In 1912 there were more road companies out than there were to be in later years.

Most of the others of the company complained of the pay, the hotels, the hard "jumps" in day coaches at all hours of the day and night. But to Suzy, if it wasn't exactly heaven, it was so much better than life in an orphanage or looking for a job had been that it seemed good. At least she had made a start. She was on pleasant enough terms with everyone in the company but the only friend she made—or wanted to make—was Maizie. From the start the two girls had liked each other and they soon became good friends. Maizie, being a few years older and having been in other companies, could and did teach her a great deal.

"We'll stick with this outfit until we get back to the big town, kid," Maizie would say. "Then we're going out for something bigger and better. You've learned a lot this year, you won't be just a beginner next season. I'm not so good—never will be anything to set the river afire or the lights in front of a theater either, but we'll make a good team. You stick to me for a while, kid, and see what happens."

"You're a dear to do so much for me," Suzy said.

"Dear nothing," said Maizie who liked to think of herself as being hardboiled. "You're a lot better than I am. The way I see it is that we'll get further together than we ever will alone. What do you say?"

"O.K.," said Suzy.

When they returned to New York at the end of the season, the weary round of managers' offices and agencies began again. They knew they could go out with the old company again in the autumn, but they were determined to find something better. Suddenly and quite by chance they did. On the street they met an old acquaintance of Maizie's, who asked them to have dinner with her. She was feeling richer because she had just signed for a musical comedy going to London. The English, it seems, were partial to American beauties. They stopped at the theater before they went to the restaurant.

Five of the weighing parties will operate on a day schedule from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. each day and the sixth will work at night from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m. The five day groups will work in the various state highway districts, while the night group will operate in all sections of Indiana. The survey will be continued until July 1, 1937.

Information collected will be of value in determining construction and maintenance needs of existing state and county highways. It will also be of value in determining which sections of highways are inadequate to carry the freight tonnage now being transported over them.

OBITUARY

We have an abiding faith in the wisdom and goodness of our Heavenly Father, that all things work together for good to them that love the Lord and in the passing of our beloved sister, neighbor and friend, we feel she has gone to receive the reward of a Christian who lived the true life as she felt God would have her live it.

Anna Elizabeth, oldest daughter of Henry and Emma Scoone Arnold, was born in Putnam County, Indiana, Oct. 9, 1869. She lived her entire life in Putnam County.

She joined the Christian church in Fillmore, Nov. 1886, during the pastorate of the Rev. Oliver P. Badger. She has ever lived a true conscientious Christian life.

She loved all the different branches of work in the church but the missionary work appealed to her more, she being president of that society for many years, did her duties faithfully and well. The society has lost one who always tried to spread the gospel for the good of God's kingdom.

On Sept. 14, 1887, she was united in marriage to Elisha L. Cowgill. Four children came to bless this home. Three have preceded her in death, Henry O., who died when eight months of age, Ruth, one day old, and Winona when 22 years of age. Only Elsie, wife of Herschel Ruark, is left, at whose home she came four weeks prior to her death.

She had been in failing health for the past three years. For a few months during this time she seemed to gain, only to slip back again. For the last two months she had been gradually slipping away but not until last Wednesday did she become alarmingly ill. Quietly and peacefully she slipped away in the early morning of July 13, 1936, aged 66 years, 9 months and 4 days.

She leaves two sisters, Candis, wife of Oscar Buis, Mary, wife of Guy Jackson, this devoted husband and faithful daughter, one son-in-law, seven grandchildren, who were ever ready to do many acts of kindness to show their love for her, a host of relatives and friends who mourn the loss of a faithful wife, a loving mother, a true neighbor and a friend who was:

Dear, gentle of speech and manner, Modest, loving and true. She has left this world better By her having passed thru.

Let us pause for a moment in God's garden, with those of our loved ones there. When God calls home the dear ones we love, to dwell with Him in perfect peace, we cannot feel that he has loosed the tie that binds our human hearts on earth, so, we find comfort in the thought, they may be our guardian angels, keeping watch over us, we still are theirs, and they are ours, even though they dwell in heaven and we on earth.

No broken ties, but just a veil between our earthly vision of that world unseen. A little while to wait, while loved ones there keep tender watch over us, till we may share their peace and God's love known unto those who dwell with Him above.

The following poem seems to fit so well this loved one's life and her passing, for she seemed weary and tired but the night of death for her is just a peaceful sleep, to awaken in the glories of that home where God reigns supreme.

Good night, dear gently calling night. I make my evening bow; I've worked until I'm tired; I'm glad That it is bedtime now.

The sunset's slipping out of sight; The birds are very still; And all the little day time sounds Have gone around the hill. You are so soft and cuddly, night; I like the feel of you; You're like my mother's loving arms, And like her warm heart, too. Goodnight.

Card of Thanks

We wish to sincerely thank all our neighbors and friends for their kindness and assistance during the illness and death of our beloved wife, mother and grandmother.

Plight of Midwest Desperate as Drouth Continues

Continuation of the drouth which extended to cover nearly every section of United States taking a toll of more than 1,700 lives and property damage in excess of $400,000,000, left the midwest in its most desperate plight in recent years. Such scenes of desolation as that above were common as cattle died like flies and crops were burned out by the searing sun.
